

Legacy of the Past Hope for the Future

Please join us for a Benefit Gala & Silent Auction supporting an endowment for pastoral leadership for Native American pastors in our historic Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference of The United Methodist Church.

The evening will feature entertainment and stunning silent and live auction items.

Thursday, April 11, 2024

5:30 p.m. Silent Auction Opens

6:30 p.m. Dinner and Program

Business Attire

Reed Conference Center

5800 Will Rogers Rd

Midwest City, OK 73110

Reply card and scholarship opportunities enclosed.

For more information, contact Conference Superintendent Reverend Margaret Johnson at 405-632-2006 or oimcgala@oimc.org

The artwork above is symbolic of our Native American and United Methodist traditions. The hands represent the passing on of our cultural and religious teachings to our children; the sunrise represents the blessing of a new day, and the bottom half is in an eagle feather design to represent our native beliefs of honoring all these things. The United Methodist Cross and Flame are flanked by crosses to represent the sacrifice Jesus made for us all.